

Regan Communications Group

CHELSEA RECORD

YOUR HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER SINCE 1890

SIMBOLI PROPERTIES MAKES TIES IN MALDEN

The Simboli Properties of Chelsea announced that it has become a co-owner of the Exchange Street Bistro, (exchangestreetbistro.com), located in Malden Center on 67 Exchange St. The Simboli Properties will be committed to diversifying the restaurant's business, as well as advising on special expansion and re-model projects.

"The Exchange Street Bistro is a beautifully designed and impeccably-run restaurant," said Anthony J. Simboli, president and founder of The Simboli Properties. "We're confident that our partnership will offer stability for the prospering business."

"We are excited to bring in Anthony's business acumen and leadership," said Exchange Street Bistro co-owner John Carlino. "The restaurant has been a popular part of this thriving community for five years, and we look forward to working together."

Just 15 minutes from Boston, the Exchange Street Bistro is open seven days a week, serving lunch, dinner and brunch on Sundays. The restaurant has a fully stocked bar, spacious lounge, and function room available for private parties and events. The creative menu features stylish European bistro fare as well as tapas and desserts.